

Risk Assessment Report

Generated 2023-09-19 from iHASCO's Risk Assessment Tool

National Trust Community Picnic

Company name: Carnivelle

Assessment carried out by: Danielle Dady

Date assessment carried out: 19/09/2023

Date of next review: 19/03/2024

1 Identify the Hazards	2 Decide who might be harmed & how?		3 Evaluate the risks & decide on the precautions			4 Record & Implement your findings		5 Date Completed
Hazard	Who?	How?	What are you already doing?	Remaining Risk level	Further action/control measures	Action by whom?	Action by when?	Completed on
Struck by paintbrush	children and adult customers and spectators	Do not face paint children under three or those who cannot follow instructions. Maintain a safe space around working area.	Offer to paint hand or arm instead for those that cannot stay still. Ask for assistance from parent or guardian.	Low	Maintain a safe work area	Danielle Dady	30/09/2023
Adverse Skin reactions	Staff, customers	Customers will be painted on as a service. Staff and other members of the public may come into contact by another surface or transfer.	Use approved paints and materials. Do not face paint children under three/with sensitive skin (offer to paint hand or arm instead). Advise people who appear to have skin conditions. In the event of an adverse	Low	Carnivelle's face painting materials are industry standard and of high quality. Insurance may be invalid if painting children under three	Danielle Dady	30/09/2023

1 Identify the Hazards	2 Decide who might be harmed & how?		3 Evaluate the risks & decide on the precautions			4 Record & Implement your findings		5 Date Completed
Hazard	Who?	How?	What are you already doing?	Remaining Risk level	Further action/control measures	Action by whom?	Action by when?	Completed on reaction, the face paint must be washed off immediately and a note taken of the colours used for the face paint design, so this information may be given to the parent/guardian

1 Identify the Hazards	2 Decide who might be harmed & how?		3 Evaluate the risks & decide on the precautions			4 Record & Implement your findings		5 Date Completed
Hazard	Who?	How?	What are you already doing?	Remaining Risk level	Further action/control measures	Action by whom?	Action by when?	Completed on
Spreading infections (eg cold sores and conjunctivitis)	Customers	Risk of spreading contagious	Do not paint the infected area. Keep painting implements clean: use clean sponges for each person, regularly wash brushes in use, regularly change water, thoroughly clean brushes, sponges and water bowls after the event. Keep potentially contaminated items separate and where they cannot be accidentally accessed.	Medium	Single use products could be used if high risk of transfer.	Danielle Dady	30/09/2023

1 Identify the Hazards	2 Decide who might be harmed & how?		3 Evaluate the risks & decide on the precautions			4 Record & Implement your findings		5 Date Completed
Hazard	Who?	How?	What are you already doing?	Remaining Risk level	Further action/control measures	Action by whom?	Action by when?	Completed on
Aggravating existing skin conditions	Customers	Skin conditions and allergies can be made worse when agitated or come into contact with paint, soap or glitter.	Do not paint children or adults with sensitive skin, eczema, open cuts or sores, or other skin conditions on the areas to be painted.	Medium	Offer to paint hand or arm instead if free from skin conditions for example.	Danielle Dady	30/09/2023
Falling	Customer	Falling over of or off of chair or equipment.	Assist customers in getting seated. Direct where is best to access area and keep free from hazards. Check seat is stable before and after each customer.	Medium	Create a safe work area. Organisers must provide face painters with an uncrowded area	Danielle Dady	30/09/2023

1 Identify the Hazards	2 Decide who might be harmed & how?		3 Evaluate the risks & decide on the precautions			4 Record & Implement your findings		5 Date Completed
Hazard	Who?	How?	What are you already doing?	Remaining Risk level	Further action/control measures	Action by whom?	Action by when?	Completed on
Staining of clothes	Customer	Paint falling on clothes	Customer advised to stay still while having their faces/body painted. Water-based face paints used for easy wash out from most materials. Avoid painting by areas close to clothing.	Low	Staining may be a risk with some materials and depending on the method of washing. Information sheet available on website, customer to be given card.	Danielle Dady	30/09/2023

A link to this assessment has been sent to Carnivelle@gmail.com